

Centre for Marine Socioecology Showcase

Wednesday May 29th 9.30-4.30pm
Hobart Function Centre

Morning session

| Time | Activity | Speaker |
|---------------|---|---|
| 09.30- 9.40am | Welcome to Country | Uncle Dougie Mansell introduced by Professor Jan McDonald |
| 09.40- 9.45am | Official Opening | |
| 09.45- 9.50am | Introduction to the day & MC | Professor Jan McDonald |
| 09.50-1000am | CMS update | Professor Gretta Pecl |
| 10.00-10.30am | Interdisciplinary research to support the UN Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development What could/should our oceans look like by 2030? (8 mins plus questions) Food for all: designing sustainable and secure future seafood systems (5 mins) Building a sustainable blue economy for the future (5 mins) Safeguarding marine life: conservation of biodiversity and ecosystems (5 mins) Oceans and society: feedbacks between human and ocean health | Professor Gretta Pecl, introducing the 'Future Seas' project Dr Anna Farmery Dr Camilla Novaglio Dr Cayne Layton Dr Kirsty Nash |
| 10.30-11.10am | Panel discussion Q & A session: Sustainable behaviours: moving from problem to practice to resilience | Expert panel Professor Jenn Scott (Psychology UTAS), Dr Kimberley Norris (Psychology UTAS), Mary Mackay (CMS & CSIRO) |
| 11.10-11.30am | Morning tea | |
| 11.30-12.10pm | Short talks (8 mins plus questions): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Implementing and evaluating Integrated Management of marine activities Conflict over marine and coastal commons: causes, governance and prevention Climate change impacts on ecosystems and food: bridging the land-sea divide | Dr Alistair Hobday Dr Karen Alexander Associate Professor Julia Blanchard |
| 12.10-12.45 | Panel discussion Q & A session: What are the big opportunities for marine Australia under a changing socio-political environment? | Stakeholder & Expert panel TBC |
| 12.45-1.30pm | Lunch & poster session | |

Centre for Marine Socioecology Showcase

Wednesday May 29th 9.30-4.30pm
Hobart Function Centre

Afternoon session

| Time | Activity | Speaker |
|--|--|--|
| 1.35-1.45pm | Introduction to the afternoon | Dr Beth Fulton |
| 1.45-2.00 | The 'Blue Economy' – why does Australia need one and what role will the new Blue Economy Cooperative Research Centre play? (10 mins plus questions) | Professor Stewart Frusher |
| 2.00-2.15 | Marine Stewardship Council certification: what's in it for fisheries? (10 mins plus questions) | Dr Ingrid van Putten |
| 2.15-2.40 | Short talks from CMS students (5 mins plus questions): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regional Fisheries Management Organizations and developing best practice • Adapting to Coastal Climate Change Impacts – Legal and Social Dimensions • The interactions of artisanal fishing with humans and ecological environment • Revisiting legitimacy of participation in marine governance and decision-making | Bianca Haas Joseph Wenta Yannick Rousseau Maree Fudge |
| 2.40-2.45 | Closing remarks | |
| Formal proceedings finish here however interested participants are most welcome to stay for afternoon tea and the activities below | | |
| 2.45-3.00 | Afternoon tea | |
| 3.00-3.20 | PhD CMS student 2 minute 'pitches' for internal funding | CMS students, audience invited to provide feedback |
| 3.20-4.30 | Developing & designing an Interdisciplinary 'Summer School', led by CMS | All |
| 4.30-4.40pm | Wrap up | |